- C. First, I took two slices of bread. I put them in a plate. Then I took out a packet of butter. I took one slice and spread butter evenly on it. Next, I took the bottle of jam and opened it. I took out jam with a spoon. I spread the jam over butter. In the end I kept the other slice of bread on it. Now my jam-butter sandwich was ready. I ate the yummy sandwich.

H. There was a flock of doves that flew in search of food. The doves were hungry. They saw some rice on the ground. They happily landed on the ground. As soon as they began to eat the grains, a huge net fell over them and all of them got trapped. The doves tried to get out but they could not get out of the net. Just then, they saw the hunter coming towards them. There was a wise dove in the flock. He suggested a plan. All the doves agreed. They held up the net in their beaks. All of them used all their force and tried to fly together. The doves were in the air flying with the net. The hunter looked at them shocked. The doves flew away to freedom.
